Take a moment to reflect on the photo.

When despair for the world grows in me and I wake in the night at the least sound in fear of what my life and my children's lives may be,
I go and lie down where the wood drake rests in his beauty on the water, and the great heron feeds.
I come into the peace of wild things who do not tax their lives with forethought of grief. I come into the presence of still water.
And I feel above me the day-blind stars waiting with their light. For a time
I rest in the grace of the world, and am free.

Wendell Berry, The Peace of Wild Things

Americans use 50 billion plastic water bottles per year.

Consider your use of plastics.

4Ocean.com is an innovative business; it hires people to remove plastic from the oceans; the business is funded through sales of bracelets made from recycled materials. A $20 bracelet funds one pound of plastic removed from the oceans.

Special thanks for our place in wild things
